

OMNIAIR CODE OF CONDUCT

Should any Member representative or affiliated party, management, staff employee, Board of Director, volunteer or other person engage in conduct prohibited under OmniAir's Anti-Discrimination, Harassment, and Hostile Work Environment Policy at an OmniAir-sanctioned event, they may be subject to appropriate disciplinary measures, including being ordered to immediately leave the event in question as well as a prohibition to attend future events or otherwise participate in OmniAir activities. Any such person will not be entitled to a refund of any entry fee, payment or other financial investment as a result of their unprofessional behavior.
